CREW OF STEAMER ESCAPES

When Boat Sinks In Mississippi River After Collision

33 NEARLY DROWNED

Members of Band and Crew Were Asleep When Steamer Struck Cribbing of Intake Tower of St. Louis Water Works.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
St. Louis, June 20.—The river steamer Majestic, the largest excursion boat on the Mississippi river struck the cribbing of a waterworks tower near here early today and sank in 10 minutes. Of the thirty-three persons on board at the time of the accident, three have not been accounted for and it is feared they were drowned. All on board were members of the crew, or members of the boat's band.

The collision occurred at 1:35 o'clock this morning. The large steamer an hour before had discharged 900 excursionists at Alton, Ill., and was headed downstream for St. Louis, 27 miles below. The boat struck squarely against the cribbing of the new intake tower of the St. Louis water works from which a red light was burning and sank to the bottom of the river. The water did not cover the vessel however, the upper deck remaining above the surface, and to this the persons on board climbed after the crash.

The accident occurred at the Chain of Rocks, a natural formation of rock that starts from the Missouri side at the extreme northern limits of St. Louis, or 15 miles above the heart of the city and runs 2,000 feet into the stream, offering a barrier to navigation around which steamers must pass.

The city intake tower is at the end of this rock barrier, and the water is pumped through a tunnel in the rock to the settling basins on shore.

The boat was owned by the Wishard Line of Quincy, Ill. It carried six lieutenants and on these 19 of the crew and others on board escaped to the Missouri shore. Six officers remained on the upper deck and were there when reporters and police officers arrived at the scene an hour after the accident.

Waterworks employees saw the vessel come into view as it turned a bend just above the chain of rocks. A moment later they heard a crash and the light of the vessel disappeared. The steamboat had gone down, bow foremost. Lacking boats, the waterworks employees were powerless to aid those on board, and telephoned to police headquarters here and to the harbor master for assistance. Automobiles loaded with people were rushed to the river on both the Missouri and Illinois sides. Rowboats and power launches were also summoned to aid. There was a momentary panic on board as the vessel struck the cribbing, and the sleeping crew and band tumbled from their berths and rushed to the upper decks. The main deck caught fire but the flames were put out as the vessel listed. The vessel then righted herself and sank to the bottom, only the upper deck and the smokestacks remaining visible as the crew pulled away in boats. Those who escaped to the Missouri shore (Continued on Page 10, col. 5.)

A. G. Wyeth Dies Suddenly At Granville Street Home Upon Return From Drive

This community was shocked Saturday morning to learn that A. G. Wyeth, president of the Park National bank and prominent as a manufacturer and long time resident of Newark, had died very suddenly while sitting in his chair reading a newspaper at his home 201 Granville street, about 9:30 o'clock Friday night.

Mr. Wyeth had just returned from an evening drive and up to the moment of his death seemed to be in his usual health.

Mr. Wyeth was born on the 11th day of October, 1841, in a cabin in McKean Township, Licking county, near where Mr. Edward H. Everett's first gas well was located. Here he passed his youth until October 16, 1861, at the age of 20 years, when he enlisted in Company B, of the 76th Ohio Infantry where he served until April 1, 1863, when he was discharged on surgeon's certificate of disability. He was a brave and honorable soldier.

After the war, Mr. Wyeth settled in Newark and engaged in business. Later, with his brother, he began the manufacture of bob-sleds and oil tank wagons. Still later this business was continued in the names of Wyeth, & McCully, and the Wyeth-McCully and Davis Company, and then as the Wyeth Company, of which latter company he was up till his death the President. This business was very successful. On the organization of the Park National Bank, he became its President and he was such President at his death.

He was a stockholder in the New King Company and in the Pharis Tire and Rubber Company. It will be seen from this statement of his business operations that he employed his surplus means in the advancement of Newark.

Mr. Wyeth leaves a widow and one son, Ralph S. Wyeth. The other son, Lee, died about eight years ago. A sister, Mrs. Charles B. Stevens, of New Jersey, also survives him.

Mr. Wyeth was a gentleman of fine character, and was in all respects a good citizen. As a young man, he volunteered for the preservation of the Union. As a mature man he earned the respect and confidence of his fellow citizens. He was honest, enterprising and successful.

Mr. Wyeth was the sole candidate for County Treasurer before the Republican primaries to be held on August 11th, this year. The loss to the community by his death will be great. He will long be remembered. The funeral services will be conducted Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Granville street home. The Newark banks will close on Monday at one o'clock.

Nine Aviators Killed In Mimic Warfare, Which Was Turned Into Tragic Reality

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Vienna, June 20.—Nine aviators lost their lives today when a mimic war in the air was suddenly turned into tragic reality, by the accidental ripping of a dirigible airship by a biplane while both were flying at a great height during the Austrian army maneuvers.

Both craft were destroyed and their occupants, nine military and naval officers and non-commissioned officers, were burned and mutilated beyond recognition.

The Austrian army dirigible balloon Koertling ascended at Fischbach about 12 miles from Vienna, where there is a military aviation station. It was the intention of Captain Johann Hauswirth, the commander, to make photographs of the movements of the troops below and then join in the maneuvers.

The aeroplane started half an hour later from the same spot. It was manned by Lieutenant Plantz and Hoosta.

The mosquito craft soon overtook her big sister and immediately began a sham attack. After encircling the airship several times at a height of 1500 feet the biplane's pilot suddenly maneuvered his little craft with the object of taking a position directly above the airship. The navigator evidently miscalculated his distance or his speed for the nose of the biplane grazed the envelope of the airship and ripped it wide open. There was a terrific explosion and the airship took fire. The flames engulfed the biplane and in a few moments the remnants of both craft crashed on the slopes of a mountain with their occupants.

The bodies were so charred and mangled that they were scarcely recognizable.

The names of the victims were captain Johann Hauswirth, Lieut. Ernst Hofstetter, Plantz, Hoosta, Bruer and Haidinger, corporals Hadima and Weber and engineer Kammerer.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

The messages sparked through 4062 miles of air between Tuckerton, N. J., and Elville, Germany, near Hanover. President Wilson and Emperor William exchanged messages last January when the emperor sent a message to the Tuckerton station, but as it was not then equipped to transmit messages but only to receive them, President Wilson's reply went by cable.

RESCUERS ARE DRIVEN FROM WORK

Fire In Hillcrest Collieries Prevents Recovering Bodies

BELIEVED 197 KILLED

After Working All Night Rescuers Recover 95 Charred Bodies—Tons of Rock and Debris Choke Mine Entrance.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lethbridge, Alta., June 20.—Although the work of recovering bodies proceeded slowly today owing to smoldering fires in the entrance of Mine No. 20, of the Hillcrest collieries, a total of 95 bodies had been removed by this afternoon and placed in Union hall, leaving 102 entombed and given up for dead.

William Brown, brother of General Manager Brown, is among the victims.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lethbridge, Alta., June 20.—After recovering 20 charred bodies at 9 o'clock this morning rescuers were driven from their work by fire at Mine No. 20 of the Hillcrest Alberta collieries, limited, where a great explosion wrecked the underground property and is believed to have killed 197 men.

Among the bodies recovered were those of James Quigley, superintendent of the mine and Thomas Taylor, fire boss. Mine experts believed that most of the men were entombed about 1200 feet from the pit mouth. But tons of rock, broken timbers and other debris are heaped in the entrances and it seemed probable that many of the bodies will not be recovered for several days.

Exploration by rescuers early today indicated that miners had no warning of death, as several bodies were found standing nearly erect with picks and other mining tools in hand, pinned to walls by timbers or rocks.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Lethbridge, Alberta, June 20.—With but faint hope of finding alive any of the miners still entombed in Mine No. 20, of the Hillcrest (Alta) collieries, Ltd., where an explosion yesterday is believed to have killed all but 41 of the 236 men in the mine at the time, government rescue crews, after a night of toil, today continued with renewed vigor their efforts to penetrate to the imprisoned men.

While mine officials encouraged the belief that many of the entombed men still are alive, this belief is not common, as relatives and comrades of the missing men fear those who were not crushed by the falling debris, were overcome by the poisonous gases that filled the mine chambers immediately after the explosion.

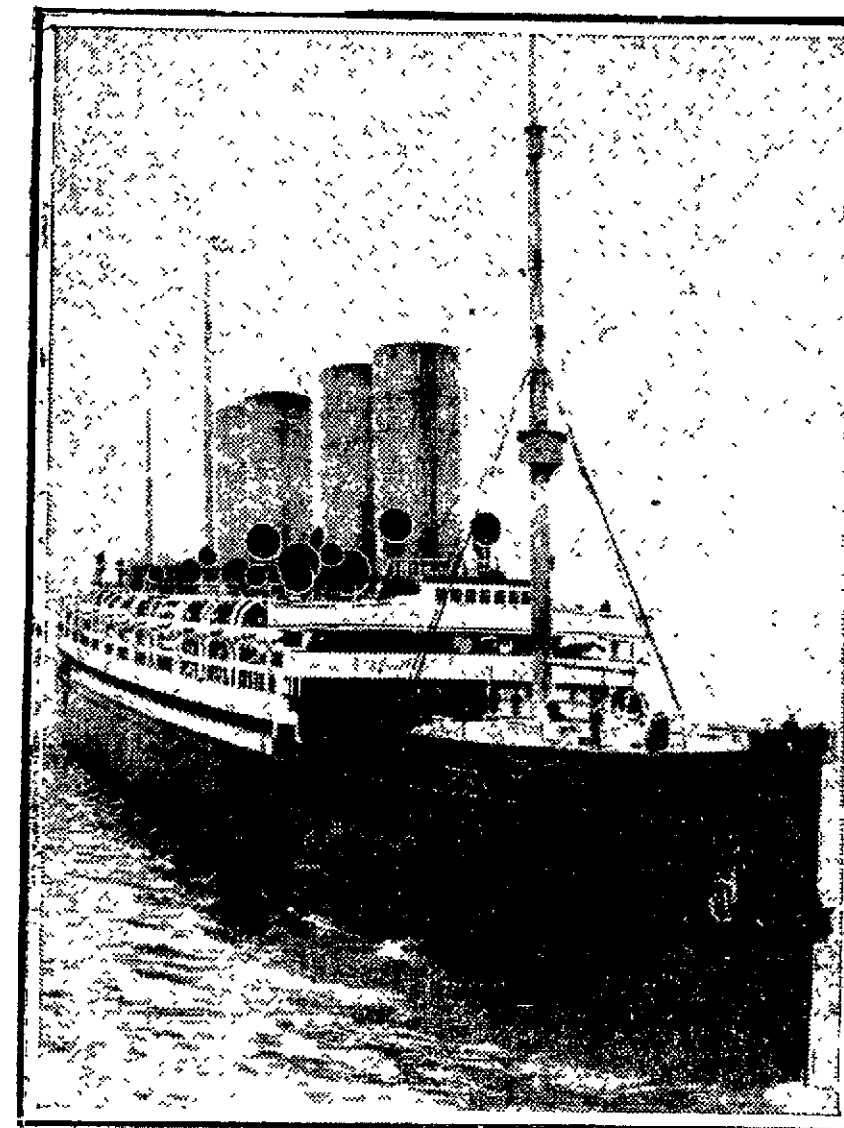

Although it was officially stated last night that only 225 men, coping with the day shift, were in the mine when the explosion occurred yesterday, later figures, declared to be authentic, place the number at 236. With forty-one of this number accounted for as alive early today, the other 195 still in the mine are believed to be dead, or with no chance of surviving the gases until rescue can reach them. But few bodies had been recovered early today aside from the 23 removed yesterday.

Under the glare of searchlights trained mine rescue workers from the British Columbia government station at Fernie labored throughout the night with the Alberta Province crew, clearing away the debris that blocked the mine passages near the entrances. As most of the miners were working several hundred feet from the mouth of the mine, when the explosion occurred, the rescuers do not expect to recover all the bodies for several days.

Storm crippled wire communication with Hillcrest, which delayed several hours yesterday the news of the disaster had made it difficult to get complete details.

This is the third great disaster in Crow's Nest pass during the last 10 years, and the number of dead it is expected, will exceed in magnitude the disaster at Frank, 10 years ago, when the village was buried by the collapse of a mountain and 125 inhabitants were killed. Four years ago 35 men were killed in the Bellevue mine.

Premier Asquith Fulfills His Promise and Receives a Deputation of Suffragettes

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
London, June 20.—Premier Asquith today fulfilled the promise to receive a deputation of suffragettes which he made to Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, the militant leader, when after her recent temporary release from Holloway jail, she took up her position on the doorstep of the house of commons and threatened to carry out a hunger and thirst strike there until the promise was given.

A party of six working women, members of Miss Pankhurst's East End federation today visited the prime minister at his official residence in Downing street.

The women were accompanied by George Lansbury, a former Socialist member of parliament and urged the cause of woman suffrage.

Miss Pankhurst was not present as Mr. Asquith had insisted that the deputation must be composed of genuine working women.

The premier welcomed the members of the deputation as representatives of an "association which dissociated itself from the criminal methods of those who have done so much damage and put back the cause of women."

Mr. Asquith argued that if every woman over 21 years of age possessed the vote they would still find legislative problems regarding women exceedingly difficult of solution in the same way as the men had found them. He agreed with the deputation that if the franchise was given to women it should be granted on the same terms as it was given to men.

In conclusion Mr. Asquith promised consideration of the women's representations and said he would present to Reginald McKenna, the home secretary the deputation's request for the release of Miss Sylvia Pankhurst, unconditionally.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

The position has been filled by a negro for a number of years.

Southern Democrats are disturbed at the reported intention of the president to appoint a negro to succeed Johnson. It was said today that the president will not be halted by criticism, but will appoint another negro.

Other officials of the bank declared all liabilities will be met.

NEW PLAN IS HARDLY PROBABLE

American Delegates at Mediation Conference Stand Firm

NO CHANCE TO AGREE

Is Belief of Principals and Last Conference May Be Held Today—Developments From Mexico City May Change Situation.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Niagara Falls, June 20.—Just one month ago today the first of the Mexican mediation conferences were held. Probably the last will occur today.

The prediction cannot be made with positiveness because of possible developments in Mexico City and Washington about which the mediators lack definite information.

Minister Naon of Argentina, who is expected to arrive here about 2 p. m. from Washington, will be conferred with President Wilson, Secretary Bryan, of the state department and Luis Cabrera, one of the representatives of the constitutionalists, may be bringing some new plan. This is not considered probable, however, as the American delegates seemed anxious yesterday to spread the news that their statement to the public was final and that a constitutionalist must be selected for provisional president. It is not believed here that anything Dr. Naon could say to the Washington government or to the constitutionalist agent would change the determination of either to reject any plan to install a neutral.

The possible developments in Mexico City which particularly interested the mediation colony led to the report that Pedro Lascurain, the ranking member in Madero's cabinet had yielded to persuasion and would again accept the portfolio of minister of foreign relations. If true, it could mean only that Huerta was prepared to relinquish his office without regard to the outcome of mediation. Many who have followed closely the trend of events in Mexico City feel that with the executive authority surrendered to a prominent Mexican, who admittedly would assume control only until some way out was found, the position of the United States would be far less embarrassing. It was said that the United States probably could even ensure an orderly entrance of the constitutionalist army into Mexico City and protection for those who had opposed the progress if Huerta were out of the way.

Principals to the mediation conference will go into the session to be held late today feeling that there is no chance of an agreement and doubting if a way can be found to prolong the negotiations. If the three plans are formally submitted the Americans will reject that prepared by the Mexican delegation, and a very similar one presented by the mediators. The Mexicans will reject the American plan. The mediators would then ask both delegations if they felt that there was any possibility for a change of opinion. If deadlock were confessed the proceedings automatically would end.

It is probable therefore that the net result of mediation will be the delay in hostilities between the United States and the Huerta government and even avoidance of further bloodshed.

CONCILIATION IS SOUGHT IN THE BIG STEEL PLANT

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—C. W. Mills of Philadelphia, and Patrick Gilday of Clearfield, Pa., will go to Pittsburgh at the direction of Secretary Wilson, and the request of the Pennsylvania state labor commissioner to act as conciliators in the Westinghouse strike. They will leave for Pittsburgh tomorrow. Both men served as conciliators in the successful attempt of the Kanawha coal strike troubles.

Administration Will Stand By Declaration That Has Been Made By American Delegates

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 20.—With the success of mediation hanging by a thread, President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan today looked to Niagara Falls for a revelation of the final stand that the Huerta delegates would take in renewal of their conferences with the American mission and the three envoys. So far as the attitude of the United States is concerned, the diplomatic die was cast. After the visit here of Minister Naon one of the three mediators, it was made known today that the administration would stand by the declaration that only a constitutionalist would be acceptable as head of the proposed provisional government in Mexico.

Whether the Huerta delegates would concede that vital point and withdraw their demand for the naming of a "neutral," no one in official circles here was willing to forecast. Secretary Bryan however, tenaciously clung to his attitude that mediation was "proceeding satisfactorily."

"When I despair of success, I will announce it," declared the secretary.

It was suggested that if at the eleventh hour the constitutionalists agreed temporarily to waive their objections to diplomatic consideration of Mexico's international troubles, it might influence the Huerta delegates to alter their attitude against candidates for the provisional presidency proposed by the United States. One of the objects of Mr. Naon's visit, it was said, was to urge that the constitutionalists recede from their stand against placing the republic's domestic affairs on the program of mediation.

Prior to the resumption of the conference at Niagara today, Secretary Bryan was in communication with Justice Lamar and Frederick W. Lehmann, the American delegates. To what features of the proceedings the exchanges related, was not made known here.

President Wilson authorized this brief statement concerning his conference last night with Minister Naon: "The entire Mexican question was discussed and as a result, the outlook is more hopeful." Officials declined to go into details.

Gov. Cox Will Probably Call Extra Session of Legislature For July 20

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Columbus, O., June 20.—That the special session of the legislature to be called by Governor Cox for the purpose of reducing the tax rate of the state will be held the week of July 20 was the belief expressed by those close to the governor today. The call for the special session will not be issued before week after next, according to administration officials.

Governor Cox has arranged speaking dates for every day next week and is expected to be at his office only two mornings during that time. His absence from the executive office it was explained, will prevent his giving enough time to work preliminary to issuing a call for the special session during next week.

While the call of the governor for the special session is expected to include only the subject of taxation, belief was expressed today in some quarters that requests for other legislation may be made before the call is issued or before the special session which is expected to last only two or three days adjourns.

One of these requests, officials of the miners organization, who were here attending the joint scale committee conference which adjourned yesterday believe, will come from the operators who are opposed to the Green run of mine law passed at the last special session. Some of the miners officials expressed the belief that the operators having interests in Eastern Ohio may ask the governor to have the run of mine, or certain sections of it, repealed or modified.

Although no formal plan in this regard is said to have been made by the operators, when asked regarding the possibility of such a move one of the operators who declined to be quoted said that the governor might be asked to include a provision in his call for a special session.

Administration officials expressed the belief that no such a request would be granted by the governor.

Contest Editor's Query Column

The Advocate will be glad to answer all legitimate questions regarding the contest through the Contest Editor's query column. Questions may be sent by mail or telephone but the answers will be printed in this column so that no contestant will have any advantage over another.

L. B. Zanesville—The Advocate has received a great many letters since the contest closed and not more than a dozen of the hundreds received have criticised any answers to the pictures. In every instance the criticism has been without a "sting" and we are pleased to note that yours is of the same variety. Manifestly if every one of the pictures had been as plain as the nose on one's face everybody would have scored 100, but the consensus of opinion seems to be that the Advocate pictures were the fairest ever used in a similar contest. While we like bouquets better than brickbats, we are nevertheless printing your letter as follows:

"Enclosed you will find coin of the realm for which please put me on your subscription list. You will have to show me about Lavender and Old Lace—notwithstanding what Mr. Webster says. In the end of 'Just One Bite,' if one of the children had said 'Give me a tiny taste,' or something to that effect, the title might have been intelligible—but one couldn't just guess off hand what was in the boy's mind. As with 'Hopes and Fears'—the faces of the entire group were pretty expressionless; seems to me the artist could very easily have made some of the faces betray hope and others fear, and thereby justify the title; but 'nuff 'ed—send on the paper anyhow, it is worth the price with or without pictures. Very cordially yours."

C. K.—If you had the correct answer to Picture No. 15, "Hearts and Hands," it does not matter which of the authors you used. This was announced several times during the progress of the contest. Your solution to No. 15 will be counted as correct if you named the book and selected either author.

Inquirer—Sixty-three is still "high mark" in the checking. Two contestants each have 62 of the 70 answers correct. The checking will be completed in a few days.

M. W. Columbus—Your serial number is 2305. We could not tell you until your package was reached by the checking department. We are sending you missing paper.

Mrs. R. A. A.—Comparatively few contestants whose solutions have been examined so far have missed "The Fourth Gospel." As we are printing "bricksbats" as well as "bouquets" your letter follows. "Isn't there a question as to whether the Fourth Gospel is an accurate solution for St. John? Isn't the Gospel John and the author St. John? At first I thought Fourth Gospel was an excellent solution. Then I thought it was not. I consulted a minister who told me that the fourth gospel is John so I eliminated it after careful study. Now I am not 'sore' because I didn't get it right. I have missed six so far, and my faint hopes are fast fading away. I think all the other answers have been perfectly fair and most of them very general and obvious. I have not been lucky in eliminating and that is where the rub comes. But it really seems to me that No. 32 ought to be reconsidered a little by those in authority. * * * The contest has been throughout so squarely conducted that I am sure the Advocate will give my petition some consideration. No. 32 could be thrown out entirely, without unfairness to any one if my point is a good one. * * * You surely have heard this 'The Gospel according to St. John.' Doesn't that prove my point? Most sincerely yours."

O. S.—After reading the letter signed Mrs. R. A. A., it does not seem good to have you write "I think your answer to No. 32, 'The Fourth Gospel' is about the cleverest of the lot. With only one or two exceptions, your answers are splendid, though I missed a lot of them. I missed No. 32, but I take my hat off to 'The Fourth Gospel.'"

G. B.—We hate to do it but here it is: "I don't think much of the man who suggested the answer to picture 42—Lecture Hours with Nature—but I will say that I think the other answers are first rate—with the possible exception of Lavender and Old Lace and Freedom of the Fields."

They were well represented in the large parade which took place Thursday, having 22 representatives in Lancaster that day. Also the convention was given to Newark for 1915. The delegates were: Mrs. David Guy, Mrs. O. P. Dorn, Miss Ruth Phillips, Mr. Stacy Conrad and Rev. A. B. Cox.

The Lodges

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Licking company No. 121 met in special session last Wednesday night for drill practice. Another fancy drill team is being organized and Captain Wollinsky is desirous of all Sir Knights attending drill practice every Wednesday evening in order that the two teams may be complete.

There are several applicants to be initiated in the near future, therefore let every Sir Knight get busy. Our turnout on Memorial Day Sunday, June 14, was excellent, considering that there were 56 out of a possible 60 men in line of march.

On Sunday, June 21, Licking company will attend K. of P. memorial at Mt. Vernon, O., and every Sir Knight who possibly can is requested to be at the B & O station for the 6:45 a. m. train to Mt. Vernon. Take complete outfit along excepting cap.

Newark Lodge No. 13. Newark lodge met Thursday night and after disposing of the usual routine of business, the Page and Esquire ranks were conferred. Brothers B. L. Montgomery and B. O. Horton were present and made reports of their trip to the grand lodge meeting at Cincinnati.

We wish to say that much praise is justly due the committee who had charge of the memorial services last Sunday. The entire program and the splendid attendance was only another exemplification of the esteem and high regard held for the deceased brothers and the loved ones.

The addresses by Rev. A. B. Cox and Hon. Louis B. Houck were heard by a large and attentive body of Knights and their friends, and we feel safe in saying that no better speakers were ever heard at our memorial services—fifty-six members of the Uniformed Rank turned out.

On next Thursday night the Knight rank will be conferred upon a class of Esquires and all those who take part in the work are expected to be present. Refreshments will be served.

Brother A. B. Cox will visit our lodge on that night and no doubt he will have something interesting to say.

Roland Lodge No. 305. At the last meeting of Roland lodge, No. 305, reports were made by our representatives to the grand lodge held last week in Cincinnati. Brother H. S. Kirkpatrick sent his report from Wheeling, W. Va., where he is temporarily located, and Brother C. L. Vanatta made an oral report. Both were of much interest to the goodly number present.

The next session of the grand lodge will be held in Zanesville next June, and already arrangements are being made to send a delegation of at least 500 from Licking county to take part in the parade, which is always a feature of these yearly sessions. Our annual memorial services last Sunday were the most largely attended ever held in this city by the Pythians. Over 300 loyal Knights were in line. The program was carried out to the letter and was very impressive. Much credit is due the various committees for the work done.

Next Tuesday evening the Esquire rank will be conferred, and the following Tuesday evening the Knight rank will be exemplified in full form. The new officers will be installed the first meeting night in July.

K. of M. Octagon Tent is having very good attendance, new applications and new members admitted at almost every session.

The annual K. O. T. M. and L. O. T. M. picnic of this district will be held at Indianola Park, Columbus, Tuesday, June 23. There is a supply of circulars and tickets at the recorder's office. They are free to any one wishing them.

BOY INJURED IN COLLISION WITH WAGON

Arthur W. Stough, aged 15 years, son of Mrs. Ida Stough of Boylston avenue was painfully bruised about the head and body when the horse and wagon, driven by George McHurd, ran over him on Buena Vista street Friday evening. Arthur was riding a wheel delivering groceries for Ryan Brothers of East Main street when the accident occurred. He alleged that he turned to the right when the vehicle approached but was unable to avoid the collision. He walked unassisted to East's drug store where his injuries were dressed. While unable to be out of bed, it is expected that he will be completely recovered in a few days.

George McHurd, the driver of the vehicle, is a farmer residing in Mary Ann township north of the city.

First Things

The first definite and decisive step toward the formation of Maine as a separate state was taken ninety-five years ago today, when the Massachusetts legislature granted the petition of about seventy towns asking for separation. Under this separation act an election was held to name delegates to a convention in Portland, and this body elected William King president and appointed a committee to frame a constitution. In 1820 the United States Congress formally admitted Maine to the sisterhood of states. Portland was the first capital, but in 1832 the seat of government was removed to Augusta where it has since remained. The northeastern part of Maine was originally a part of Acadia. After the revolution the boundary line between Maine and New Brunswick was not definitely decided, and Maine had been a state for over twenty-two years before the controversy was settled. The first permanent settlement in Maine was made at Monhegan in 1622, after several previous attempts by both French and English colonists had failed.

PATTON FOR SHERIFF

MAYNARD WHITE, A NEWARK BOY, IS A CHAMPION

Son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. White Has Wonderful Record On Track.

Maynard White, the 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. White, of New York City, who was born in Newark and lived here with his parents until they moved to the metropolis, is one of the best sprinters ever seen in the east and is attracting the attention of coaches and trainers by his wonderful work on the cinder path, and they predict for him shortly a place in the hall of athletic fame, to be won by his remarkable speed.

On account of his youth he is known as "Kid" White and he has already won many championship medals and records in competition and against time.

He is now the undisputed National interscholastic champion at 100 yards, having run this event this season running under the direction of the New York Athletic club, for which performance he also received the medal given by Col. Robert Thompson, chairman of the American Olympic Committee.

A partial list of his races will give some idea of the Newark youth's great prowess as a short distance sprinter.

In 1909—Won his first race, a 50 yard dash, at the age of 13.

1910—Won 50 yard dash in 6 1-5 seconds, a record, which is not official, not being made in championship games; won 60 yards dash.

1911—Won elementary indoor championship for 60 yards in 7 2-5 seconds, making an official record; won 80 yards elementary outdoor championship, and other minor events.

1912—Entered Stuyvesant high school making track team as a lower freshman.

Won 60 yards midget, in 7 seconds an official record not yet equalled.

Won 100 yards, junior, (open to any high or preparatory school for boys under 16) high school championship.

Member champion half mile relay team.

1913—Took second place in senior championship open to high school or prep students of any age or weight.

Took 65 yard dash in 7 1-5 seconds, defeating a field of 150, breaking American athletic union novice record.

1914—Won 60 yard dash, senior handicap, from scratch in Stuyvesant school games, breaking the national interscholastic record in one of the heats, his time being 6 3-5 seconds.

Won 70 yard dash in Brooklyn college games, and 65 yards in Fordham university games, both A. U. events, defeating Lippincott and Patterson, both of the University of Pennsylvania. Lippincott took second in the 1912 Olympic games. Alvah F. Meyers, national senior champion, also competed.

Won 100 yards senior high school indoor championship.

Again member one-half mile championship relay team.

Won 100 yards national interscholastic championship.

At Columbia university in a race for try-out of the varsity team in the 100 yards, White beat Black, French champion, and Donald Young, member of the 1912 Olympic team. His time was 10 1-5.

In both picks for the all-scholastic team, White was first choice for the 100-yard sprint. This team will go to the Panama-Pacific exposition under the direction of Dr. C. Ward Compton, head of the physical training department of New York City.

Young White is coached by Billy Keating, one time national champion, and holder of world's record sprints, and Berney Wefers, a noted runner and record-holder, at present coach of the New York Athletic club and Columbia college. Wefers is generally recognized as the greatest coach living.

This is indeed some record for an 18-year-old lad, and yet he bears his honors gracefully and with becoming modesty.

Maynard's mother was Miss Jennelle Felix, a daughter of Mr. John Felix, this city. His father is one of the most noted photographers in the United States, and founder of the White School, director of the Seguinland School of Photography, lecturer on Art Photography at the Teachers' college, Columbia university and the Brooklyn Institute of Arts and Sciences.

ONLY 9 BATTERS ARE DOING 300 IN AMERICAN

(Associated Press Telegram.)
Chicago, June 20.—Only nine batters in the American League are doing better than 300 according to this week's averages, and among them is Ty Cobb, who finally worked his way to the top, being tied with C. Walker of St. Louis with 347. Next to him come: Coveleskie, Detroit, 343; Baker, Philadelphia, 332; Jackson, Cleveland, 323; Crawford, Detroit, 315; E. Walker, St. Louis, 308; McInnis, Philadelphia, 300; E. Collins, Philadelphia, 300; Leibold, Cleveland, 297. The Athletics lead the league in club batting at .267 and Detroit is next at .254.

C. Miller, St. Louis, continues to set the pace in the National with .362. In the first ten are Hummel, Brooklyn, .362; Dalton, Brooklyn, .357; Elberfeld, Brooklyn, .344; Byrne, Philadelphia, .342; G. Burns, New York, .337; Phelan, Chicago, .333; Grant, New York, .329; S. Magee, Philadelphia, .320; Gibson, Pittsburgh, .315. In team batting Philadelphia with .267 and New York with .264 are leaders. Manager Herzog with 21 leads in stolen bases. Among the pitchers Mathewson is credited with ten victories and three defeats, while Pfeffer and Atchison of Brooklyn and Doak of St. Louis have won five and lost two each.

Today in Pugilistic Annals

1895—Young Lustig, the little Hebrew boxer, born in New York. Lustig, whose front name is Max, began scrapping in 1911, and soon became a favorite preliminary boxer because of his cleverness and his willingness to mix it. Last year he began to get matches with some of the lads higher up, and was nearly always victorious, scoring knockouts over Pong Saylor, Young McDonough and Ah Chung, the alleged heaviest Chinese boxer. Lustig also made an excellent showing in bouts with other rising young pugilists, including Kid Herman, Tommy Henrich, Willie Chandler, Penny Leonard, Young Britt and One Round Hogan. Lustig is one of dozens of New York Jews who, inspired by the financial achievements of Abe Attell and Leach Cross, have taken to the big game in the last few years.

1909—Jimmy Clabby knocked out Dick Fitzpatrick in the 8th round at Hammond, Indiana.

1911—Knockout Brown knocked out Bant Dorsey in the 4th round at Albany, New York.

Baseball Brevities

Friday was Herzog Day at the Polo grounds, and the Cincinnati manager was given a great ovation upon his first appearance in New York as a manager. His team however made a miserable showing piling up seven errors, and getting only five hits off Margard. Koestner pitched the latter part of the game and did well.

Joe Boeling with a man on third, purposely passed Cobb and Crawford to get at Veach, who came through with a sharp single scoring Bush from third with the winning run in the tenth inning. Does a base on balls ever pass? It can hardly be reasoned out that it gives anything.

McCarthy the Newark player, was in the game for Indianapolis against Milwaukee Friday, got two hits and scored one of his team's two runs. The Brewers, however won by a score of 3 to 2.

In five trips to the plate Friday, Cobb got two bases on balls and made three singles, a perfect record at bat for the day.

The Browns are now in third place in the American league race, while Washington has dropped from first to fourth in the last two weeks.

Rixey made his season debut at Philadelphia Friday and pitched poorly against Chicago and was taken out of the box in the sixth.

Becker made his third home run Friday in three successive days for the Phillies.

President Weeghman of the Chicago Federals announced Friday, that the pupils of the 225 primary schools of Chicago would be admitted free to the games, his team plays here until every one of them has seen a game. He plans to admit a certain number Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of each week when the team is home, taking the children by classes.

Mexico.

The news dispatches from Mexico tell from day to day a story of death, destitution and paralyzed industry. Relief will come, but as yet it isn't in sight.

The people of the United States do not realize what a reservoir of resources and wealth is tied up as the result of human folly.

The original resources of this country are to an extent depleted. Land is high and food of all kinds is high. Mexico's idle land can feed millions and her mines and forests can set industry in motion.

Mexico is a natural field for the enterprise of American business men. If order can be restored, a great deal of this wealth will legitimately flow into the United States. The profits of mines, forests and fields will be spent here. This is possible without exploiting the Mexican people, or denying them their fair share of the product.

In one church in Guadalupe, the altar vessels, railings, candelabra, etc., include 50 tons in silver. This is but a slight suggestion of the abundance of the precious metals. Rich as are these treasures, it is said the country would be four times as wealthy today had its fields, instead of its mines, been developed.

The wasting of the forests by this profligate race is almost unbelievable. The nomadic tribes of Guerrero are accustomed to burn over rich lands yearly to obtain fields for their sickly gardens. The next year they move into some new locality, and destroy more of these wonderful trees for the same temporary purpose. A great tree will often be cut by the Mexicans to get a single board. Mexican civilization has had many fine aspects, and there must be elements of stability that at last will assert themselves. Irritating and costly as is the present turmoil, there will be a rich reward if peace can again be restored. A country that for many years under Diaz had a regular treasury surplus ought to be a valuable neighbor.

Eighty per cent of the population of Mexico, says John Reed, correspondent for the Metropolitan magazine.

Friday's edition of the Zanesville Signal, the "Zanesville Reconstruction Number," is a credit to Muskingum county journalism and a number of which any city in Ohio might well feel proud. Supplementing the regular news section of twelve pages are three other twelve page sections devoted to features well written and well illustrated, proving the ability and versatility of the staff of writers directed by Editor Joseph Downs. The advertisers, too, have shown their appreciation of the number with liberal patronage, represented throughout the forty-eight pages of the big edition. This special edition is typical of the high character of the Signal as a progressing newspaper.

Tommy—"Pop, what sort of prophet is without honor in his own country?" Tommy's Pop—"The weather prophet, my son."

By the Way

After a farmer retires from active work he spends the balance of his life helping his wife with the family washing.

When a poor young woman marries a rich old man love is laughed at more than usual.

People are always a little suspicious of the woman who is too frequently called upon to defend her honor.

Mrs. Tug Watt's chief distinction is that she knows more things than are not true than any other woman in our town.

Generally speaking, a woman hater is a man who married one of them.

A girl's life is made up of twelve years of school, three years of society, five years of a piano lesson and six weeks of preparation for the responsibilities of marriage.

The compensation for belonging to the class known as "workmen" is that the politicians will make him a hero of you.

Today's Birthda Party

Over in England the burning question of the day is, "Is George Bernard Shaw serious?" On this side of the Atlantic Elbert Hubbard, the sage of East Aurora, presents a similar problem. Leaving to his countrymen the task of deciding whether G. B. S. is or is not in earnest, one may hazard the guess that Fra Elbertus is not only serious, but that he spells the word with a $. But the Fra is also sentimental, and one of the most beautiful tributes ever paid to a wife came from his pen—and he has enjoyed a large sale.

Elbert Hubbard, the G. B. S. of America, is a product of the West, for he was born in Bloomington, Ill., fifty-five years ago today, June 19, 1859, the son of Dr. Silas Hubbard. He had only a common school education, and followed several occupations with more or less success before the cosmic urge drove him to East Aurora, N. Y., to establish the unique business which has made him both wealthy and famous.

On the subject of matrimony Fra Elbertus, like G. B. S., has decided views. He describes jolly gams as "an attempt to get more out of life than there is in it." With the socialists, although he is far from being a disciple of Marx—he holds that the economic independence of the fair sex is necessary to complete happiness in the state of matrimony.

"I believe in votes for women," said the Fra in one of his lectures. "The time is coming when all of them will earn their own living. The clause by which a woman promises to obey a man was put in the marriage service by the Turks and no one has yet taken it out."

The Hubbard philosophy of matrimony was expressed some years ago in the Hubbard philosophy of matrimony by the Fra's better half. Mrs. Hubbard wrote:

"Were it possible for men and women when they marry to realize that their own nothing more in 'rights' after marriage than they did before, and would make no more demands upon each other, marriage even with its present accepted meaning would not be a failure."

Of her own experience Mrs. Hubbard wrote:

"I am a woman of varied occupation. I supervise the work in a large shop, also in a large home. I write a little; farm a little, and am busy from early morning until 9 o'clock at night with work which must 'make good.'"

"Marriage has more than fully come up to my expectations. I anticipated the closest friendship and companionship of the best friend whom I could imagine. I also knew Emerson's essay on 'Friendship,' and that in order to have a friend I must be one. In order to be worthy of living with a friend I must be able to live without that friend. I expect to give whatever I had, in thought, word and deed."

"If I had to do it over again would I marry? Why, yes, absolutely. Provided I were the same person and my husband were the same man, or else marriage with me would be a failure."

"In order for marriage to be a success it must be new every morning, fresh every evening—the spontaneous joy of living together."

"I am economically free. I earn my own living. I have never been a beggar in my life. Before I could earn money I did not ask for it, and ever since I have been able to work I have always earned what I have used."

Children's Sayings

What was it your child or your neighbor's or your friend's child said yesterday or last week that made you smile or think? Children are ever saying or doing original or quaint things. Let's have them. The Advocate will be glad to receive communications along this line. Every communication must be signed but if the name is not to be printed, kindly so indicate it. If you prefer, use the telephone and ask for the Children's Sayings Editor.

Little Margaret, six and sweet, while wrestling with an orange at the breakfast table the other day, took advantage of a lull in the conversation to remark: "What one do you s'pose I love most?" Father was first to claim the honor, but was disappointed. Mother, too, inquired in vain. Then each member of the family was mentioned and a dozen little friends were suggested. Finally they gave it up and asked Margaret to tell, and the little girl, turning her big brown eyes towards mother, sweetly said "Jesus Christ."

Two little Newark cousins were playing together, when one became so realistic in her imitation of distress as to excite the anxiety of the other. Apprehensively she asked, "Is oo cwyng?" Removing the corner of her apron sufficiently to expose one eye, the first one reassuringly replied, "No, I'm only weeping."

A busy Newark mother, having occasion to run down stairs for a moment, turned to her little son and said, "You watch baby brother till I come back." With the air of one being shamefully imposed upon, he said, "I'm tired taking care of Billy. Why don't you have God take care of him?"

Marian had gone to spend the day with some relatives and thinking to please her by catering especially to her tastes, her aunt said, "Marian, how shall I cook the potatoes?" With an expression of tolerant superiority, she answered, "Why, on 'e 'tobe, o' course."

Hearing her mother and grandmother talking of a trip they had once taken together, little Jean asked "Who took care of me when you and mother were gone?" Her grandmother answered, "That was before you were thought of. We didn't even know there was going to be any Jean." Jean threw back her head and, laughing gleefully, said, "Oh, that's one on you."

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Bodily Temperature.
Many people are unaware of the so called normal body temperature of 98.6 degrees F. is not always maintained by persons in perfect health. Variations of a degree between 6 p. m., when the temperature in normal man is highest, and 3.30 a. m., when it is lowest, have been noted, and a healthy child's temperature sometimes falls in the early morning as low as 96. At other hours, however, an abnormally high or low temperature is an excellent reason for calling on the doctor.

Paragraphs

The Impossible.
Over in Germany there's a genius who has built a man of wheels, cogs, pulleys, clutches and other mechanical appliances, and he says the man can do anything and so displace the human machine. He couldn't get a party telephone line when a neighbor woman has it.—Youngstown Vindicator.

Coats and Friends.
My coat and I like comfortably together. It has assumed all my wrinkles, does not hurt me anywhere, has molded itself on my deformities, and is complacent to all my movements, and I only feel its presence because it keeps me warm. Old coats and old friends are the same thing.—Victor Hugo.

His Off Year.
But speaking of peaches—the kind that grow on trees—there has been a remarkable lack of having them all killed off this year by untimely frosts. In fact, the calamity howler is not making much of a showing this season.—Mansfield News.

Remarkable Cows.
A New York country hotel makes this announcement in its advertising circular: "As we possess our own cows, we serve the creamiest milk, home-made butter and strictly fresh eggs and purest spring water." These cows evidently produce everything but garden vegetables.—Springfield Republican.

Tree of Life Tongue.
A wholesome tongue is the tree of life; but perverseness therein is a breach in the spirit.—Proverbs, Chapter 15.

Think It Over.
What the superior man seeks is in himself; what the small man seeks is in others.—Confucius.

Boy Needs Tooth Brush.
Charles D. Hiles has turned his attention to philanthropy, and made the interesting discovery that what the bad boy needs is not a birch rod, but a tooth brush. He is the president of the New York Juvenile Association. He says that 91 per cent of the delinquent boys received by his society suffer from bad teeth, and after two years of dentistry and toothbrushing they are turned out 90 per cent good. The bad boy is the sick boy, says Mr. Hiles.—Zanesville Times Recorder.

It cannot be said that the women are making long strides in the matter of dress.—Woman's Home Companion.

Little Too Early.
"Which one of the Ten Commandments did Adam break when he ate the apple?" asked the Sunday school teacher.
"He didn't break any," replied one little fellow.
"Why not?" queried the teacher.

Soup Not Safe.
"Mrs. J. F. R. writes: 'Will you please tell me if it is advisable to give a baby thirteen months old soup made from bouillon cubes?'—Doc Evans' department. When in doubt throw it away and use fresh cubes. They are not expensive."—Chicago Tribune.

At Granville.
First Freshman (at football game)—Look at 'em in all that mud. How will they get clean?
Second Freshman—Huh! What do you suppose the "scrub team's" for?

"Do you know where little boys go who don't put their Sunday school money in the plate?"

He Was Right.
The class in history had the floor. "Can any scholar tell me where the Declaration of Independence was signed?" asked the teacher.
"At de bottom, like a letter," promptly replied one lad.—The American Boy.

Quite a Talker.
Charley Fries came to town Tuesday evening with his best girl. We don't know what she said, but it took the doctor three-quarters of an hour to get a big bug out of his ear.—Johnstown Independent, June 14, 1888.

HAD ECZEMA

TWENTY YEARS

And Was Cured Completely in Two Weeks Time by the Use of Goodhair Soap.

"Gentlemen: I have been sick, I may say, for the last 20 years; went to Hot Springs, St. Paul, Minn., and was benefited while there but when I came home I was worse than ever. I had eczema on my face, neck, arms and legs. Sometimes the burning sensations are enough to drive me crazy. There are no sores of any kind on my skin, only a dry scaly skin, or it is raw and very tender. I have spent a fortune in medicine, have taken every remedy by the dozen; would use a box of Goodhair Soap in two days. I could not say how many bottles of it, but I must say I HAVE DERIVED MORE BENEFIT FROM GOODHAIR SOAP THAN ANY OTHER. I HAVE TAKEN IN SUCH SHORT TIME, I CAN GO TO BED NOW, AND STAY UNTIL I AM READY TO GET UP IN THE MORNING. NOTHING I HAVE NOT DONE IN TEN OR FIFTEEN YEARS. I have told three friends of mine who are so troubled, but they said they could not get that soap here. The drug clerk said he had not heard of it before."

I shall never forget the kindness of Dr. Hughes of Garrett, Ind. He has done everything in his power for me. Everything he has heard of he has told me to do, and now through his kindness, AND YOUR WONDERFUL SOAP, I hope to spend a few happy and peaceful days or months on this earth. Hoping you will send me a box of Goodhair Soap at your convenience, I remain, with many thanks for your trouble."

A few social ripples ruffle the placid surface of life in the college town since the breathless rush of the commencement current has subsided. The fraternity houses are scenes of gay week-end house parties, save perhaps, that of Sigma Chi, and there is, here and there, an event of social importance. In the main, however, those who remain in town for the summer, will find their chief interest in the young people who are expected to invade the town for the course in Denison Summer school which will begin Monday.

HOLDEN—THOMPSON.
The marriage of Miss Maude Thompson daughter of Dr. J. D. Thompson to Mr. Fred Holden of New York was solemnized June 19th, at the residence in Broadway. The ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock. Rev. Holden of Zanesville, father of the groom, Rev. J. T. Newell of the Granville Presbyterian church assisting. The bride looked charming in an exquisite gown of white embroidered chiffon, carried a large shower bouquet of pale pink roses. About thirty-five friends were present. The bride's going away was a becoming suit of dark blue cloth with hat to match.

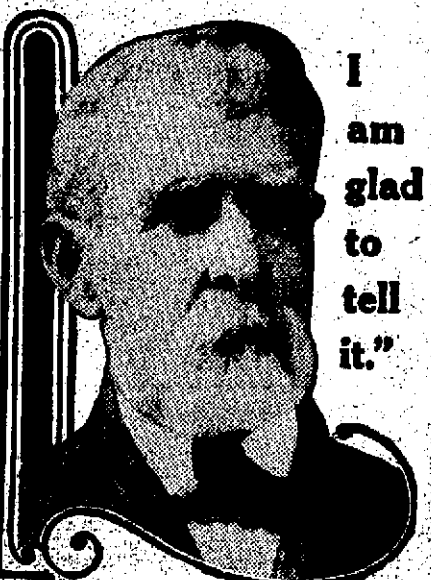

Miss Thompson is one of Granville's most popular and beloved young women. In college she belonged to the Shepardon Glee club and various organizations, and was a loyal member of Chi Psi Delta Sorority. The groom graduated from Denison about 1911, with membership in the Sigma Chi fraternity, since his graduation he has been successfully engaged in business in New York City. Where he now holds a responsible position with the White Investing company. The young couple will return to New York City early in July.

"Peruna Cured Me"

MR. ROBERT FOWLER, Of Okarche, Oklahoma.

Mr. Robert Fowler, Okarche, Oklahoma, writes:
"To any sufferer of catarrh of the stomach, I am glad to tell my friends or sufferers of catarrh that seventeen years ago I was past work of any kind due to stomach troubles. I tried almost every known remedy without any results.
"Finally, I tried Peruna, and am happy to say I was benefited by the first bottle, and after using a full treatment I was entirely cured.
"I am now seventy years old, and am in good health, due to always having Peruna at my command. I would not think of going away from home for any length of time without taking a bottle of Peruna along for emergency."
"You are at liberty to use my picture and testimony if you think it will help any one who has stomach trouble."

Continues Talk on Beauty Destroying Habits

HABITS—Part III.

Other habits to which young girls seem particularly addicted are keeping the mouth open, biting the lips and fushing. Greene's exquisite picture of maidenhood is the Broken Pitcher, now hanging in the Louvre in Paris, shows the childish mouth with the lips just parted and the expression has become to be synonymous with youth and innocence. Like many a modern idea it takes an artist to develop it, and to modern thought and medical knowledge such an expression suggests an obstruction in the breathing apparatus which may be responsible for all manner of ill health. The idiosyncrasy of mouth breathing in childhood is due to adenoid growths and it is the general opinion among medical men today that these should be removed. In some cases mouth breathing is simply a habit that can be stopped if the parents take that matter seriously in hand. Teach the child to breathe properly, filling the entire lung space and with the lips closed. Teach the child rhythmic breathing while walking. A child will regard such exercises as a game and it will not be long before correct breathing will be natural and the open mouth habit abandoned. It is impossible for the child to breathe with mouth closed after a fair trial, there is undoubtedly some obstruction and a physician should be consulted. Mouth breathing is often responsible for a misshapen nose, short upper lip and protruding teeth; it is moreover a common condition of the throat and lung passages.

To Make the Lips Red.

Biting the lips may simply be a habit due to nervousness, or it may be done intentionally to make them red. Although I am not in favor of any form of "make up," beyond a pure powder for young girls, I would rather see a girl make her lips healthfully red by means of a colored rouge than by biting them. A good stick rouge will not harm the skin and, if properly applied, it will not show, while biting the lips will spoil their shape and cause the thin skin to become irritated and break. Red lips are generally a sign of good health, which is really the basis of our liking for them. There are some rare cases of pale lips with healthy people whose circulation seems good, due to a thickness of the skin. Lip massage with a good cold cream often helps such cases.

The girl who has commenced the habit of lip biting may continue it simply on account of the irritation and the loose skin it has produced. She should put plenty of cold cream on her lips at night and have them sufficiently well lubricated during the day to keep them smooth and soft.

Flushing Both a Habit and Symptom of Disease.

A quick flush on a young face always appeals to me as it does, I think, to most older people. However, youth is apt to be very sensitive on this point and I am often asked how it may be avoided. Blushing from nervousness or embarrassment will only be cured by curing or removing the cause. Forget your-

The chronic flushing that comes from indigestion is a frequent source of mortification and it is sometimes seen with people who are apparently temperate in matters of eating and drinking. A person with this tendency should avoid highly spiced foods, hot drinks or hot soup. Any food that causes flatulency of the stomach is apt to cause flushing. Keep the skin cool by smooth, healthy condition and free from irritation. If soap irritates it, use a good cleansing cream and keep it well lubricated as a protection against wind and weather.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

Gifts and Dates.

The New Bride carefully wrapped up the bill roll she had bought and cast about in her mind's eye where to place it.

"I want him to come upon it unexpectedly," she thought with a whimsical smile, "and to find it addressed to himself, and wonder what it is, and how it got there."

She finally decided to tuck it among the things in his bureau drawer. "He goes to his lodge meeting tonight and he'll dress after dinner. And when he is rummaging around in his drawer for his cuffs and tie and things as he always does, he'll find it."

So she snuggled it down among his handkerchiefs, and then began her preparations for dinner. And while she was clearing away the dinner dishes, having left the door to upstairs ajar, she heard a surprised exclamation, then a low whistle of delight, then:

"Alison, where did this bulky wallet come from?" "Wallet!" surprised. "What wallet?"

"A beauty. Here in my drawer. Addressed to me." She went up to his room. She surveyed the pocketbook with pretended amazement. She apprized the quality of the leather with delicately appreciative fingers. "You must have an admirer," she said, professing fierce suspicion and jealousy.

But the gleam in her eyes and ring in her voice betrayed her. "You little wretch," said the New Bride, kissing her. "That's one of your tricks. And I wanted a new wallet so much."

"I saw you looking rather doubtfully at your shabby one the other day," smiled the New Bride. "So I thought I would make a wedding anniversary or birthday or something. I like surprises, and I like Christmas and birthdays and anniversaries when you are not expecting them."

"But this is not an anniversary or a birthday is it?" asked the literal New Bride, bewildered. "What is the date, any way?"

"But that's what I am saying—that the real date doesn't count," laughed the New Bride. "One doesn't have to wait for a date to express love. Some morning you'll wake up and find it is Christmas."

"I had better get this well filled before that happens," smiled the New Bride, patting the wallet.

"Movable anniversaries are not so expensive as immovable ones," sagely observed the New Bride. "They are not so ceremonious and the surprise is almost as jolly as the gift."

"Have just as many wedding anniversaries in a year as you want, dear. And so long as you don't count my age by birthdays, I don't care if I have one every month."

"I think Fourth of July would make a very nice Christmas," mused the New Bride. "Think of all the bargains in the shops! But then, I don't want dates and days. I just want little surprises that mean, 'I love you!'"

And she tripped back to the kitchen while the New Bride meditated upon the fact that such gifts did indeed mean "I love you," since they expressed that understanding of a need that only the eye of love discerns.

Newspapers And the Pulpit

PRESS AND THE PULPIT.

By Fred W. Knapp, Editor of the Beloit Gazette.

FRED W. KNAPP.

YOU may not have noted the fact, but preachers and editors are very much alike. They are never overpaid in this world's goods for the services they perform for humanity; they are each expected to share in the joys and sorrows of the community in which they labor and are alike working for the general uplift of humanity. The editor joyfully heralds the news of your arrival into this transitory existence, is delighted to chronicle your happy marriage and bows his head in sorrow as he publishes a half column obituary at your untimely demise.

While the minister's chief function is to point the way toward God and spiritual things, yet it is not speaking disparagingly of his high calling to note the fact that much of his labor deals with the practical, everyday problems of human life. The church has found it necessary to give attention to social, economic and even political questions in order to establish the foundation upon which to build a permanent Christian citizenship.

The functions of the public press are more varied than those of any other profession. First of all our newspapers are the mirrors from which are reflected the actual conditions of every day and season and of every people, state and nation.

The public press is also charged with the responsibility of exerting a wholesome editorial influence. It goes into practically every home in the land, is read by every fireside, by people of every sect and creed, by people of every trade and profession, by people of every station in life and of every taste.

It is not always popular for the editor to stand out firmly for the right side of these great moral questions. In fact, in many instances he has done so at the hazard of his business, his property and even of his life. But as a rule the public press stands for the highest ideals of life, for purity in public and private affairs and for the betterment of all mankind.

TOMMY'S WIFE PRESENTED AT CENTRAL CITY

"Tommy's Wife" had some time for sure. At least that was the verdict of a large audience that crowded the Baptist church in Central City Friday night and saw this charming farce comedy enacted by eight members of last year's graduating class of Granville High school. So successful was it that requests have been made for its presentation in Hebron and St. Louisville.

"Tommy's Wife" will be given by the 1913 class members at the North street school in Granville next Tuesday night. The "wife" appears at 8 o'clock, promptly.

Physical Effort For Moral Advancement!

"It isn't so much what you do, but the things you leave undone; that gives you so much of a headache at setting of the sun."

Some day, some time, some way, we all hope to help in the ever widening field of public uplift.

Some method will be suggested, some plan will be outlined, some thought promoted, and each expects to get behind and under it and help.

Since the formation of the world society has been advancing, sometimes, we thought, perhaps the steps were feeble, sometimes we felt the advance was slight.

But since the dawn of the ages, since the advent of man, since the birth of Christ, especially since the Sermon on the Mount, we have known that the advance is certain even if it is slow.

Every great movement has advanced because there were strong characters believing in it.

Every step has been made with the assurance of friendly interest and of active help from those who thought, believed, knew the end to be attained was worth more than the effort to accomplish it.

Every good citizen realizes that the cause of humanity, of social progress and moral advance is centered in the church.

"FOR GOD SENT NOT HIS SON INTO THE WORLD TO CONDEMN THE WORLD, BUT THAT THE WORLD THROUGH HIM MIGHT BE SAVED."

Every good citizen probably feels that some time, some way, some inspiration, some purpose will put him in line of helping those who are trying to strengthen the church.

But time is fleeting, days are passing, opportunities are slipping away, and the work is not done as it might be done.

Everyone has some talent which would help in the general movement to give broader strength to the great moral advance.

Some are making the most of their talents, others are burying them, perhaps in selfishness, in hope that the talent may not be lost.

Believe, and make the world believe; your will is set to win; believe! belief's contagious, you'll help others and yourself.

Each has some substantial beliefs in what the church is and what it is striving for; each has known the advantages of the church; what it has meant to him—what it should mean for others.

Every Sunday presents opportunities to strengthen this church in finance; every week offers opportunities to make your belief stronger.

Did you ever notice the music of the church bells—how it rings an invitation; how it seems to reach through dead walls and call to the world to be up and doing? Why not respond—and help?

M. L. BATES

with the larger religious life of the city. All of the other churches will be invited and there will be a brief talk by one minister from each religious body in Newark. A social season will follow the program.

On Lord's day, June 28th, H. Newton Miller of Madison, Connecticut, also a former pastor, will be the principal speaker. Sunday evening will be known as "Round-up Night," the general theme of which will be "What Next?" There will be a number of brief, breezy talks that will be full of enthusiasm and optimism.

The music for the entire celebration will be in charge of Mr. Russell H. Williams, director of the choir of the Central Church of Christ, and Alva D. Hays, who will provide orchestra music and a male quartet.

Diplomacy Needed.
"You seem to be having a struggle over that letter."
"Yes; I want my wife to think I miss her, but I don't want her to get to feeling so sorry for me that she'll hustle home."—Kansas City Journal.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Every one is rejoicing over the fine donation that came to the building this week. We have for some time felt the need of another piano, to be placed in the parlors, and used especially for vesper service each night. This need was realized when Air Rawlings generously donated us an instrument. This gift will mean much, and we wish to express our thanks and appreciation.

Sunday, June 21st is to be Bird Sunday. At 2:30 p. m. a group of girls will leave the Y. W. C. A. for Mr. Henry Fleck's home in Hudson avenue. The service will be held out on the beautiful lawn which in itself will be a treat. Mrs. Fleck, who has made an especial study of birds, is going to tell us about "Summer Birds of Ohio." This will be a rare, as well as a delightful privilege, and we hope there will be a good number at the building at 2:30 o'clock on Sunday to join the party.

Preparations for camp are progressing nicely. Everything will be in readiness by July 7, so make your plans now.

The market on last Saturday was well patronized. Practically everything donated found a ready sale, and more could easily have been used. We wish to thank all who helped to make this market a success.

Miss Constance Mac Corkle, territorial secretary, is planning to be in town over Sunday and Monday.

Our tennis club now numbers twenty-one. It is not too late to join.

By morning! the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharge and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight, struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

Typical Newspaper Comments on Redpath Chautauquas

Huntington, W. Va., Herald-Dispatch:

"On with the Chautauqua. It is educational as well as recreational. It brings great things home to us to see which, otherwise, would require hundreds of miles of railway travel, and entail an expense account that very few could afford."

Gary, Ind., Post:

"It is doubtful if any Chautauqua in any city ever had such overwhelming success during its first year as the Redpath Chautauqua had here last season."

Charlotte, N. C., Observer:

"The fact that the entertainment is in a tent will not prejudice you against the Chautauqua if you go just one time. For the price of admission the entertainment is remarkable."

Columbus, Ohio, Dispatch:

"One of the striking features of the Chautauqua movement is the appeal to all classes of people. * * * These Chautauqua assemblies are among the mightiest forces of popular information and diversion."

Dyersburg, Tenn., State Gazette:

"We will all be sorry when it becomes necessary for them to fold their tents, but unlike the Arabs it will not be necessary for them to steal away."

Findlay, Ohio, Republican:

"No criticism has been heard as to the merit of the attractions seen and heard in this city. The program was arranged to suit every taste. * * The Redpath Chautauquas will be welcomed to Findlay in future years."

"DRUCO" Isn't a Cure-All But It IS "All Cure!"

PICNIC PARTY FROM NEWARK TO RESERVOIR

UPON COMPLETION OF B. & O.
ROAD TO THORNTON NEAR-LY 44 YEARS AGO.

Col. Chas. H. Kibler Among Those Who Made Addresses Upon That Occasion—A Bit of History.

Nearly 44 years ago, October 15, 1870, a train over the then new Newark, Somerset & Strutsville railroad, which had just been completed as far as Thornton, carried a picnic party of ladies and gentlemen to that terminus, where the day was most pleasantly spent on the east bank of the "reservoir," now Buckeye Lake.

The occasion developed into a veritable feast of oratorical congratulations to the contractors who had finished the construction that far, and were busily engaged building toward Somerset, which terminus it was expected to reach that winter.

Two of these contractors were the late Lewis Evans and William Shields of Newark, and among those who responded to toasts at the picnic dinner were the late Judge Charles Follett, James R. Stanbery, Adam Fleck, Henry D. Sprague, of Newark, and Col. Charles H. Kibler, the only one who is still living.

Others prominent that day were W. C. Quincy, father of Mrs. Fred Sites; Hon. T. J. Maginnis of Zanesville, and Dr. Talbot of Fairfield county.

The train left Newark at 11 o'clock in the morning and ran the 11 miles in half an hour.

About the same time W. C. Quincy had resigned his position as superintendent of the Ohio division of the Baltimore & Ohio, and expected to remove from Newark. Before going he was taken to one of the rooms of the Tubbs House and presented by Major A. W. Dennis with a silver service and cane, on behalf of the employees of the B. & O. at this point.

EXPERIMENT FARM FOR MUSKINGUM

Zanesville, June 20.—A concerted effort is to be made to secure a county agricultural experiment station or farm at or near Zanesville for the benefit of the farmers and fruit growers of the county.

At the various meetings held throughout the county this week Mr. Beggs, the lecturer, urged upon the farmers to petition the county commissioners for an opportunity to vote on the establishment of an experiment farm at the county seat and to support the project, when the matter came to a vote at the November election.

That the petitions will be numerously signed is a foregone conclusion.

WOMEN CAN HARDLY BELIEVE

How Mrs. Hurley Was Restored to Health by Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Eldon, Mo.—"I was troubled with displacement, inflammation and female weakness. For two years I could not stand on my feet long at a time and I could not walk two blocks without enduring cutting and drawing pains down my right side which increased every month. I have been at that time purple in the face and would walk the floor. I could not lie down or sit still sometimes for a day and a night at a time. I was nervous, and had very little appetite, no ambition, melancholy, and often felt as though I had not a friend in the world. After I had tried most every female remedy without success, my mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I did so and gained in strength every day. I have now no trouble in any way and highly praise your medicine. It advertises itself."—Mrs. (S. T. HURLEY, Eldon, Missouri.

Remember, the remedy which did this was Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For sale everywhere.

It has helped thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing down feeling, indigestion, and nervous prostration, after all other means have failed. Why don't you try it? Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

MONTHLY REPORT OF THE NEWARK PUBLIC LIBRARY

The regular monthly report of the Newark Public Library, from May 15 to June 15, has been made by the librarian, Mrs. Eliza Rankin. The detailed report follows:

Cash on hand, May 15$19.54
Received from fines and reserves 9.77
Total receipts$29.31
Expenditures$18.20
Cash on hand, June 15.....$ 4.01
Circulation—Adult fiction for the month, 1,520; juvenile books, 284;
non-fiction, 748; total circulation,
2,552.

Highest daily circulation, 280; lowest daily circulation, 79; average, 130. New patrons for the month, 29; books mended, 305.

Number of books accessioned, catalogued and placed upon the shelves during the month, 212. Of these, 13 were purchased by the Thelma Society of the Newark High School, 62 were gifts, 3 were purchased with "gray book" money, 3 by the Library Association, 1 with "gift" money.

Gifts to the Library during the past three months were as follows: The Coterie Club, $11; Richard Shide, $3; R. R. Riley, 75c; Mrs. Mary Barker, $1; Grace Dickson, $1; Mrs. Grace Kennedy, 62 vols.; Mrs. Geo. Sprague, 18 vols.; Mrs. Bingham, 11 vols.; Wilson Hawkins, 14 vols.; Mrs. Wm. Prout, 5 vols.; H. Jessop, 1 vol.; Mrs. Robbins Hunter, 5 vols.; R. Reed of Utica, 11 vols.; Christian Science church, 3 vols.; Walter Irwin, 2 vols.; Ethel Grimm, 1 vol.; Clara Bragg, 3 vols.; J. J. Carroll, 2 vols.; Madge Lindsay, 2 vols.; Miss Sudbury renewed subscription to the Travel Magazine; Rev. Mr. Jones renewed subscription to Country Life; Miss Janet Jones subscribed to the Nation; a fine edition of George Eliot's works was purchased with money given by the Tuesday Bridge Club.

Current magazines were sent in by Mrs. J. B. Thomas, Mrs. Prout, Miss Murphy, Jay Ritter, Mrs. Charles Metz, Y. M. C. A., Miss Laura Jones, Mrs. Merion, W. D. Gilbert, Miss Robbins, Mrs. Agnew and Harry Matthews.

A story hour was held each Saturday morning for two months, Miss Gladys Beecher and Miss Thoro MacDonagh telling the stories on alternate Saturdays. The expense incurred in carrying on this work was assumed by Wilson Hawkins, superintendent of the schools. It has been an interesting experiment that proved beyond doubt that the story hour is a most valuable adjunct to the Library, in teaching the children how to choose the better books and to eliminate the undesirable and mediocre in children's literature.

Although the circulation fell off during the heated term of weather, the Reference and Reading Room was used more than ever. New books are being constantly added to this department, making it of great use to the public. Sixty magazines are on file each month. The Newark Times, The Sun, Columbus papers and the Newark papers are to be found here and are free to the public. The Library is open daily from 9 a. m. to 8 p. m. Auditorium Building. Everybody welcome.

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We eat too much meat which clogs
Kidneys then Back hurts and Bladder bothers you.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleepless and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications. A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and thickness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic; you can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. 600 MILLIONS IN AUTO SALES FOR YEAR 1914

The trade estimates that the sales of automobiles for 1914 will aggregate a total of $600,000,000.

And yet some pessimists talk about dull times.

It is interesting to note that this immense volume of business has been largely built up through persistent advertising linked with consistent salesmanship.

And more enlightening still is the fact that much the larger percentage of automobile advertising is used in the daily newspapers.

The newspaper advertising which in most cases is directly linked up with the name of the local dealer is the sales message, that brings direct results. The automobile is a useful servant, but had there not been such aggressive and intelligent advertising its manufacture would still be among the infant industries.—Zanesville Times Recorder.

Today We Celebrate

For many years the twentieth of June was a holiday in Mexico, commemorating the execution of Maximilian, the Austrian prince who had sought to found an empire in Mexico, and of his generals, Miramon and Mejia. Even now, forty-seven years after, the tragedy of Queretaro is still fresh in the minds of Mexicans, and it will be celebrated today in many a rebel camp, where the fate of one "tyrant" will be recalled as prophetic of what will be meted out to present and future dictators.

It was 7 o'clock of that June morning forty-seven years ago today when the Emperor Maximilian was led from his cell in the little prison at Queretaro. He was placed with his back to an adobe wall and facing a firing squad of Mexican soldiers. Bravely and without a tremor he looked the marksmen squarely in the eyes. "Aim well, boys, aim at my heart," he called out. The officer in command raised his sword and uttered a word of command, the rifles spoke, and Maximilian's dream of empire was ended. Miramon and Mejia, traitors to their country though they were, faced death as bravely as their chief.

A groan of horror went around the world when the news spread that the Mexican "barbarians" had carried out the sentence of execution passed upon the Austrian Archduke. All of the European powers had joined in representations to the Mexican government in the hope that the sentence of death would be changed to exile. Up to the last moment it was believed that Maximilian would be spared, but all such hopes failed to take into consideration the Mexican lust for vengeance. When Maximilian, supported by the bayonets of the French army under Bazaine, had lorded it at Chapultepec, he—or at least the officers under him—had shown no mercy. Nearly all of the Juarist generals captured by the imperialists had been promptly shot, without even the mockery of a trial. Mexican women and children had been outraged and butchered by the European army of invasion. Maximilian, in his days of power, had granted no mercy, and in his hour of weakness he could expect none. It is true that Maximilian had not approved of Bazaine's cruelty, but the acts of "the Butcher" had been performed in his name, and the Mexicans, having suffered so much, could not be expected to be in the mood for fine distinctions. Stern Mariano Escobedo, who has captured Maximilian at Queretaro, refused to listen to any plea for mercy, and could be satisfied with nothing less than the death of the Austrian prince.

After the French troops were withdrawn, and the Empress Carlotta had hastened to Europe in a vain attempt to secure assistance to bolster up the tottering throne, Maximilian established himself at Queretaro. There his forces were in command of Miguel Miramon, a former president who had allied himself with the imperialists, assisted by Tomas Mejia, the Indian "King of the Mountains," and General Lopez. When Gen. Mariano Escobedo besieged Queretaro, Lopez turned traitor and betrayed the Emperor. It has been alleged that Escobedo personally negotiated with Lopez, and that he made and broke a promise to treat Maximilian as prisoner of war. In any event, the Emperor, with Miramon and Mejia, were tried by court-martial, convicted, and sentenced to death. The condemned men remained in prison from the day of their capture, May 15, 1867, until they were led out to be shot a little over a month later. Maximilian's body was turned over to his relatives, and his funeral was celebrated with great pomp and ceremony in the cathedral at Vienna.

20,000 MEN TO ATTACK ZACATECAS

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
 TORREON, June 20.—(Over military wires to El Paso, June 20.)—The last of the organizations of the division of the north to be employed in the attack on Zacatecas left here early today.

General Villa and his staff will follow either late today or early tomorrow morning. "In the attack of Zacatecas will be employed about 25,000 men," said General Villa today. "Of this number about 20,000 belong to the division of the north. We will be supported by fifty-one pieces of field artillery and seventy-three machine guns. There is enough ammunition for both as well as for the men." "I would prefer that those Mexican patriots who engage in politics take a rifle and help fight General Huerta," said Villa. "For myself I wish to say that I am out of politics and that bringing this campaign to a successful conclusion is the only object I pursue." Last night a train with fifty-six severely wounded soldiers arrived here from the Zacatecas zone of operations.

CLUES ARE FOUND AS TO IDENTITY OF DROWNED GIRL

[ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM]
 Schenectady, N. Y., June 20.—Two clues were found today bearing on the mystery of the woman's torso found yesterday in the Mohaw river. One was the fact that on May 20, a young man hired a skiff at a local boat livery and took aboard a heavy bundle wrapped in a burlap sack, and a chunk of concrete. He rowed downstream and was not seen again, although the skiff was returned to the owner during the night.

The other clue caused the police to investigate the disappearance of Miss May Kaeda, who lived with her parents on the outskirts of the city. She has not been seen in a month. The dismembered body showed evidence of having been in the river for about a month.

 Washington, June 20.—Thousands of government employees throughout the country today enjoyed their first Saturday half holiday of the summer. President Wilson recently issued an executive order effective today, granting government employees Saturday afternoons off from June 15 to September 15.

BUSINESS IS MARKING THE MAN WHO DRINKS

Why So Many Former "Good Fellows" Have "Cut It Out" and How They Did It.

"There's a reason," as they say in the advertisements, for the great American railroad system putting the screws on drinking employees. A train in charge of a crew whose brains are alcoholically stewed would be no safer than if it were manned by a crowd of crazy people.

Common sense is getting a chance these days. People are stopping to think. Business says "Quit Drink." There is no sentiment about it. Business, however, knows that incapacity and Alcohol are bosom friends. They're chums. Drink and efficiency, however, do not mix. This age demands efficiency and the man who once drank and thought it all right is now marked.

Business has got his number. He's off the line of march of the candidates for promotion. This is why so many of the wise old boys

ENJOYABLE WAS CONCERT GIVEN AT W. NEWARK CHURCH

Every one who attended the concert at the West Main street church on Friday evening was given an evening of rare enjoyment. Mrs. Bertha Doomey Roe was never in better voice and completely captured her audience, while Mrs. Alma Nildren Hare held her audience spell bound from start to finish. The charming personalities of these two ladies, added to their ability as entertainers, enables them to number their friends by their hearers.

Miss Viola King surprised her audience by her solo work, while the combined accompaniments of organ, piano, and violin, made a very attractive number. Mr. Paul Hawkins, with his saxophone and violin, needs no comment.

Misses Bessie Larkins, Pearl King and Nina Hawkins at the piano did fine work.

This is the closing number of the lecture course which has been so successful that the demand for a lecture course for another year makes that now assured.

DROPPED DEAD IN PUBLIC SQUARE
FRIDAY EVENING

John King a veteran of the civil war, aged 71 years, dropped dead on the West Side of the square, in front of the King shoe store, about 6 o'clock Friday night, death being due to heart disease. The deceased was born in Maryland, but for many years lived in West Virginia, coming to Licking county about six years ago, where he lived at Summit Station, with a son Robert King.

He was in his usual health Friday, which has not been robust for some time, and spent part of the day with his brother George, at Alexandria. He came to Newark in the evening en route to his home, and soon after arriving in the city was fatally stricken.

The body was taken to Bazler & Bradley morgue, prepared for burial and shipped to Summit Station at 10:40 o'clock Saturday morning.

The deceased was a soldier in Company G, 46 O. V. I., in the civil war, and later was a member of the Union Veteran Legion at Columbus. Besides his son he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Nina Buckingham, a brother William and a sister Mrs. Joseph Axline all of Summit Station.

NEW PLAN

their fighting unless hostile action is taken by the federal forces opposed to American troops at Vera Cruz, the latter being contingent upon Huerta's retirement and the withdrawal of American forces which would follow.

One protocol directed toward settlement of the Mexican trouble was signed. It proclaimed that there shall be set up in Mexico on a day to be fixed later, a government to be recognized by the Mexican people as a whole. This was intended to be followed by other protocols setting forth the names of the individuals to be installed in control of such government; fix the date at which they would take over affairs from Huerta, and pledge governments represented by the mediating plenipotentiaries. No agreement was reached on names and the protocol which consumed a fortnight of argument in its preparation is therefore a diplomatic utterance wholly without force.

MINISTER NAON CONFIDENT OF
FINAL SUCCESS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Buffalo, N. Y., June 20.—"I was never more confident than I am today of the ultimate success of mediation," said Dr. Romulo S. Naon, minister from Argentina when he arrived here at 12:30 o'clock today after conference in Washington with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan.

Minister Naon predicted that negotiations would be continued at least another two weeks. "I am confident," Minister Naon, added, "and optimistic which I have always been. While I regard the difficulties which have been encountered as serious there are always difficulties in mediation and it is the duty of mediators always to find a way to overcome them so peace may be accomplished."

As the minister took an automobile to a hotel for luncheon prior to returning to Niagara Falls he said he would consult with his colleagues tonight before making any announcement and that they probably would be no full session of delegates and mediators until Monday. Dr. Naon declined to say what proposals he had in mind which would break the deadlock in the mediation but he came away from Washington highly optimistic. He found that President Wilson and Secretary Bryan were anxious for one thing—the pacification of Mexico—were ready to listen to further compromises or suggestions for which a solution might be found.

The publication of the statements setting forth the respective positions of the American and Huerta delegates admittedly has cast a shadow of doubt over the negotiations. In each side finds it difficult to recede from publicly announced attitude. But there is a strong probability, in the opinion of Dr. Naon, that by abandoning the discussion of types and individuals and going ahead on the other important points in the peace plan a man may be found in the interim who would satisfy, if not the letter, at least the principles of both the American memorandum as well as that issued by the Huerta delegates.

In any event Minister Naon was sure that the mediation at least would resolve the difficulties between the United States and Mexico and spoke with confidence of the ultimate solution of the international problem.

CARRANZA'S REPLY IS DISPATCHED TO THE MEDIATORS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Saltillo, Mex., June 19.—(Via Laredo, Texas, June 20.)—General Felipe Angeles, acting secretary of war of the constitutional cabinet was deposed from the position today by order of General Carranza for disobedience of orders.

General Carranza's reply to the Niagara mediators declining to arrange an armistice with the federals received its final touches today and will be dispatched tonight or tomorrow.

Officials in authority here take the stand if the constitutionalists are not represented at the conference, the fault lies with the mediators and declare that the demand for an armistice was impossible for the constitutionalists to grant under existing circumstances.

No further details of the action which caused a sensation here were made here beyond a statement that Angeles had received certain offers from Carranza and had failed to carry them out.

General Angeles is general of artillery in Villa's army and a strong Villa partisan. His removal from the cabinet reduced him to the rank of general. He is a graduate of Chapultepec military academy and has played a prominent part in Villa's campaigns.

Word was received today from Oriztlan, Hidalgo, that twenty chiefs had met in that place and arranged for a campaign in the central Mexican states. They sent their respects to General Carranza and asked for instructions.

It was stated that 30,000 men under General Gonzales are being mobilized for the campaign to the south and that several detachments had left already for San Luis Potosi.

It was reported here that General Manuel Chao, former governor of Chihuahua, who was replaced by General Villa, had been executed on Villa's orders.

CLAIM TO HAVE SEEN MANIFESTO OF GEN. VILLA

(Associated Press Telegram)
El Paso, Texas, June 20.—Arturo Elias, the Huerta consul here, said today that two days ago he had talked with several persons who said they had seen in Torreon several days previously a manifesto issued by Villalobos, proclaiming General Angeles provisional president of Mexico. Elias declined to give the names of his informants saying they had left El Paso. He said that they had no copy of the manifesto.

That Villa had proclaimed anybody for provisional president was denied by all constitutionalist agents here. General Angeles was reported as leading the advance of Villa's army against Zacatecas.

REBELS CAPTURE
ANOTHER VILLAGE

(Associated Press Telegram)
Saltillo, June 19.—Via Laredo, June 20.—Diaz Gutierrez a small town six miles north of San Potosi was captured today by constitutionalists under General Carrera Torres, according to official advices received here. General Torres, who commands the constitutionalist forces besieging San Luis Potosi, reported to General Carranza that the federal force garrisoning that city was "very numerous" but he was unable to estimate their strength. Three monoplane for use in the constitutionalist campaign arrived here today.

Lieutenant Porte has not yet given much attention to a food supply. It is said that he plans to carry only enough food from Newfoundland to sustain the crew to the Azores, where another supply to last until Spain is reached will be taken aboard. According to present plans the flight will start about July 15.

BANK OFFICER

BE INDICTED.

(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, June 20.—Indictment of at least one officer of the Lasalle street Trust and Savings Bank, the Lorimer Munday institution, for which W. C. Niblack was appointed receiver yesterday is certain, according to a declaration made today by Maclay Hoyne, state's attorney. "We already have what appears to be a prima facie case showing this officer to have been guilty of receiving a deposit after he knew the bank to be insolvent," Mr. Hoyne said.

The receiver perfected his bond of $2,500,000 today and took charge of the bank.
